

logitrans International Transport Logistics Exhibition 2017 Exhibitors Statements

Ayşe Altan, Turkish Cargo, Cargo Manager, Communication and Advertisement, Turkey

We are very pleased to exhibit at the 11th edition of logitrans fair for the 9th time. Turkey's location at the center of the world and the capability to reach nearly 40 % of the overall global GDP in 4-hour-flight time makes such organizations more meaningful and necessary to support. Every year, logitrans improves in terms of exhibitor and visitor profile specifically in Air Cargo industry and this clearly indicates the growth of Turkey in this field. We expect that logitrans will be among the top international logistics events with the completion of new Airport in Istanbul and of the other infrastructure investments and we will continue to support logitrans as the flag-carrier air cargo brand.

Kamil Asan, General Coordinator, Samsun Lojistik, Turkey

It is a very successful exhibition. This is the meeting point of the industry. We are happy to be here under the same roof with our business partners. We are planning to take part in the show again next year.

Hasan Hatipoğlu, Regional Director, Lufthansa Cargo, Turkey

Despite the geopolitical and economic problems that started in 2016 and reflected to 2017, we have experienced a very productive exhibition process especially in terms of visitor frequency. I would like to thank everyone including organizers, exhibitors and whoever that has contributed to the continuity of logitrans, which is the only exhibition in the sector.

Erkan Durdağı, Co-owner, Xinerji Technologies, Turkey

logitrans; is the meeting point of the logistics sector and is the place where the industry can express itself.

Arif Özer Özsan, Sales and Marketing Manager, Transorient International Forwarding Inc., Turkey

We have been exhibiting at logitrans Exhibition for the third consecutive time and will be participating again in 2018. We are delighted to be able to meet with our customers, business partners, suppliers and overseas agents at the same time. This provides us to gain time and money at the same time. We thank logitrans for providing this common platform to us.

Erdal Kılıç, General Manager, Soft Bilgi İşlem, Turkey

We are pleased and proud to see that logitrans develops and grows with the industry by further raising the bar every year.

Gökalp Çak, Vice President, Netlog Logistics, Turkey

logitrans is growing every year. We sincerely believe that this kind of fairs and events have an important function in the growth of logistics sector in Turkey.

Şenol Taş, Vice General Manager, Sarp Intermodal, Turkey

We have been exhibiting at logitrans for the last 2 years and it has always been busy. I think other companies should also exhibit at logitrans, which is the only logistics fair of our country.

Pelin Günay Polat, Corporate Communications Coordinator, Safiport Derince, Turkey

We have been exhibiting at logitrans for two years. logitrans is an important platform for bringing together stakeholders of the industry and it is also a meeting point for us. As big players of the industry, we must support such platforms that nourish the sector and enhance sectoral communication. We will continue to exhibit at logitrans in the coming years as well.

Özgür Güneri, General Manager of Turkey, United European Car Carriers, Turkey

The importance of logitrans is huge for us. During three days, it gives us the opportunity to see our customers under the same roof, and gives the possibility to get new clients as well. It is a fair where logistics professionals with high qualifications come together. See you in 2018...

Marjorie Arrot, Marketing Officer, Ports of Toulon Bay, France

For the third participation of logitrans, the Ports of Toulon Bay are very happy to participate to this exhibition. In fact, logitrans is a good place to meet our principal and biggest partners, to build stronger relationships with them and to find new opportunities in the freight sector.

Erkan Karabulut, Production Manager, Lohr Istanbul, Turkey

This is the first time that we are at logitrans. As we are a production company, we did not have too much expectations. But we had about ten dialogues with the visitors and exhibitors. We hope minimum one or two projects will turn into orders. For 2018, it will be a good idea to participate again.

Nurlan Toganbayev, Commercial Director, KTZE – Khorgos Gateway, Kazakhstan

Within the development of the New Silk Road, we are looking for partners. As Turkey is a crucial hub of OBOR we can find those partners here and are able to promote our services.

Pascal Lecamp, Director of Turkey, Business France, France

We believe logitrans is the right place to meet people, not just in the Turkish market but in the region as well.

Farid Saffarzadeh, President, International Freight Forwarders Association, Iran

Iran and Turkey play a very important role in connecting Europe and Asia. We can build up more business together.
